

BOOK CLUB DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Do you think sibling rivalry is common? If so, do people outgrow it?
2. Do you think that parents have favorite children? Who is most affected, the favored or the unfavored? In what ways?
3. Was Stone wrong to copy Ted's files and share them with Ted's publisher? What was his motivation?
4. When Stone felt guilty about reading Ted's private papers, he thought that "no harm, no foul" justified his action. Do you agree? Was there actual harm to Ted?
5. Do you trust consumer review sites? Which categories (e.g., products, restaurants, movies, travel)? If a review site has one extremely negative review and several good ones, how much credence do you give the negative one? How should companies handle negative reviews?
6. Sydney and Harmony have different partnering styles. How would you describe them? Which would you say is healthier?
7. Have you ever received a sign, like the white deer, that helped you make a major decision or solve a problem?
8. What words would you use to describe Ted and Stone's relationship?
9. How does the Master Tailor Noge Katsu influence the narrative?
10. If you could give Harmony some personal advice, what would it be?

11. Does being a lawyer sound like fun? Rewarding?
